CHAPTER 20

SOLID WASTE

Part 1

Solid Waste Disposal

§101. Authority. This Part is enacted pursuant to the Solid Waste Management Act of Pennsylvania, Act of July 7, 1980, P.L. 380, as amended.

§102. Disposal of Solid Waste. No person shall dispose of solid waste within Buffalo Township except in an area permitted by the Department of Environmental Resources of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. All solid waste generated in this Township, excluding only those types requiring specialized disposal not available through the solid waste facility of Lycoming County, shall be delivered to and deposited in Lycoming County's solid waste system.

(Ordinance No. 17, adopted January 4, 1988)

§103. Storage of Solid Waste. No person shall collect, hold or transfer solid waste for disposal, unless the ultimate destination thereof is such a permitted area, wherever located.

§104. Violations. Any violation of this Part shall be subject to such penalties as are from time to time set forth in the Solid Waste Management Act.

(Ordinance No. 16, adopted May 6, 1985)
